Navy Gets a Score.

Third period: The midshipmen showed a wonderful reversal of form at the opening of the third period, and kept the army on the defensive. Vidal kicked off to Roberts, who caught the ball on the Navy's five yard line and ran it back 25 yards. A series of brilliantly executed forward passes, interspersed with an exchange of punts, brought the ball to the Army's 15 yard line. Here Ingram broke through and blooked Vidals attempt to punt on the Army's 15 yard line, snatching the ball and carrying it across for the first Navy score of the game. Helfel kicked the goal.

Wiggins, Harvard Center.

Wiggins went to center for Harvard and more punting followed. Neither team was able to gain by rushing. Starting from their 48 yard line Yale made a first down by attacking Wigins for gains by Legore and Jacques. Legore fumbled but Gates recovered and ran to the Crimsons 12 yard mark before being forced outside. Legore hit center for a yard and Neville made six and then one. He then went two feet further and made it first down on the two yard line. Yale Scores Touchdows

Legore was stopped by Harte and Padmun held Neville without gain. Again Neville failed to gain but on his third attempt he broke through for the first touchdor. Yale had scored against Harvard in years. Comerford missed goal Score: Tale 6. Harvard 2. Comerford kicked off and the period ended after Casey had gained two yards.

Third neriod:
Both teams took the field without change except that Harris returned to Harvard's center. However kicked off to Legore on the 18 yard line and he ran back 15 yards. He punted on the first sown. Casey lost his footing in the mud and Horween kicked back, Jacques falling on the ball on Yale's 28 yard mark. Church replaced Moseley and another exchange of puntagave Harvard the ball on its 18 yard mark.

Yale Forwards Break Through.
Yale's forwards broke up Harvard's line plays and the Blue ends stopped Casey, forcing another kirk which Laroche got on his 44 yard line. Harvard also forced a punt and penalty of 15 yards for Yale holding put the ball in midfield. Howeven made four and then two but Harte fumbled and Church recovered for Yale at the center of the field. Legare, with good interference turned Harvard's left wing for 20 yards. A penalty for Harvard off side gave Vale first down on the 25 yard line and Legore forward passed to Gates on the eight yard line for another first down. Ynle Forunrds Break Through,
